MLA 8th Edition Cheat Sheet

Top 10 differences between MLA 7th and 8th editions

1. No need to add the format, e.g. Print, Web
2. No need to add access date for articles from a database – just websites
3. No need to add place of publication
4. If something is missing – leave it out! No need for n.d., n.p., etc.
5. Roles such as editor and translator are no longer abbreviated – instead write out fully
6. Add URLs for websites but remove the http://
7. Add the DOI (Digital Object Identifier) where available
8. Add the abbreviations “vol.” and “no.” for journals, e.g. vol. 10, no. 5
9. For more than one page number, write “pp” before, e.g., pp. 65-67
10. When 3 or more authors are present cite only the 1st author’s name followed by “et al.”
